The screenshot displays a mobile application interface for a pet-related service. At the top, the status bar shows the time as 5:41 PM on Friday, November 21, and the battery level at 77%. The browser address bar shows the URL "dreamteamp41.org".

The main content area features a calendar grid with dates from 3 to 16. A "Select Employee" dropdown menu is visible in the top right. A "Continue" button is located on the right side of the calendar.

A "Payment" modal is open in the center, displaying a summary of the transaction:

Summary
Event	^
Voucher(Dogs) ($40.00) x 3 Pets	$120.00
Fake news hahahaha	$120.00
Total Amount:	$120.00

The "Payment Method" section offers two options: "On-site" (selected) and "Stripe". A note below states, "The payment will be done on-site." The modal includes "Close" and "Book event" buttons.

Below the calendar, the "Upcoming events" section is visible. It lists two events:

- California Community Center Resource Day: Begins 22 NOV at 2:00 pm, Free, 19 slots left. Location: California community center.
- Fake news hahahaha: Begins 28 NOV at 1:00 pm, From $30.00, 64 slots left. Location: UofL school of business.

A "Quick Reminder" box in the bottom right corner contains the text: "Quick Reminder: Please fill out pet profile form before selecting any bookings!" and a text input field labeled "Enter your message...". A notification icon with the number "5" is also present.

On October 16th, Pets4Life Louisville hosted a Community Partner Conversation at the California Community Center – a gathering designed to listen, learn, and connect with people and organizations who care deeply about pets and families in Louisville’s 40210 neighborhood.

This event was part of our ongoing work supported through the PetSmart Charities Incubator Grant, which is helping us co-create new solutions for improving access to veterinary care in historically underserved neighborhoods. Over the past two years, we’ve conducted surveys, interviews, and multiple focus groups with residents in

Story Overview

In Louisville’s Park Hill neighborhood, Community Ambassador Brittney Parker is more than a trusted neighbor – she’s a lifeline for pets and their families. Recommended to Pets4Life Louisville by the Louisville Metro Housing Residence Office, Brittney’s passion for animals, background in veterinary technician training, and deep roots in her community have made her an indispensable bridge between residents and the care their pets deserve.
